August 2016

Board Meeting Highlights Saturday, August 6, 2016

The Board met at Grand Oaks in Weirsdale to tour the facility. After the tour and much discussion, the board agreed for Sunshine to present a bid to the PWCCA October Board Meeting to host the 2019 National Specialty. This site is able to hold all events, including herding and tracking, held at the National Specialty with a bevy of motel rooms within in a 5 mile radius. More information to follow.

This facility is also very conducive to holding our Coursing Ability Trial. Debbie Gapsch and Dianne Tharp will proceed with planning this event. We hope to make this a club outing with a pot luck lunch. The grounds are very beautiful and should be a fun time for all. Any dogs can compete in this event (except Bitches in heat).

We discussed hold an AKC 4-6 month puppy class with a Sanctioned Match in the Spring. Will further investigate with AKC.

The Board moved to present Kay McLain with an Honorary Membership for her long standing support of Sunshine.

The Board would like input from the membership about holding an Obedience and Rally Trial in the future. Please contact Dianne Tharp or any board member if you have an interest in these events.
